TUES. and WED., JUNE 3 and 4

"The Knickerbocker Buckaroo"

FEATURING

Douglas Fairbanks and Edith Chapman

Six thousand and seven hundred feet of thrills and laughter. It took six solid months to make "Knickerbocker Buckaroo," the biggest and best Douglas Fairbanks art craft picture ever produced. Six months, many thousand feet of film, hundreds of actors, magnificent sets, the lease of a complete railroad system, engines, cowboys, Mexicans, New York Club men, pretty girls, villains and Douglas Fairbanks. The longest, the most pretentious, the funniest, the most exciting Fairbanks' picture ever attempted. Every foot of film is packed with punch and laughter. It'll make you gasp and laugh and applaud and yell for more, when the 6,700 feet is run and you will talk about it for weeks. It means the best evening's enjoyment you ever had. Shown for two days—

SAVED HIM MONEY.

City Editor of The Dallas Express, I want to congratulate you for saving me a few dollars by reading ads as you have from time to time suggested. I saw an ad in The Dallas Express, advertising hats and caps at 2115 Elm street, and I went there and got a genuine Panama for $3.50 best bargain I ever had. It pays to read The Dallas Express' ads. A CUSTOMER.

Remember that in organization there is strength and you make your race strong by joining the N. A. A. C. P.

Miss May Franks of Longview, Texas, is visiting her cousin, Miss Annie L. Anderson on Bryan street, who is very sick.

Prof. J. C. Phillips, A. B., the celebrated dramatist and popular elocutionist after an absence of 5 years arrived in the city on the 23rd to the delight of entire Dallas and will change his headquarters from Cleveland to Dallas, see ad in The Dallas Express.
